Hotel Site Selection

Let us do the hotel shopping for you! We will find the best hotel at rates within your budget. We work with all the major hotel chains worldwide. Our focus is on our customers so we are not beholden to any single hotel chain or property. One call to us can get you rates at virtually any hotel throughout the world.

Ground Transportation

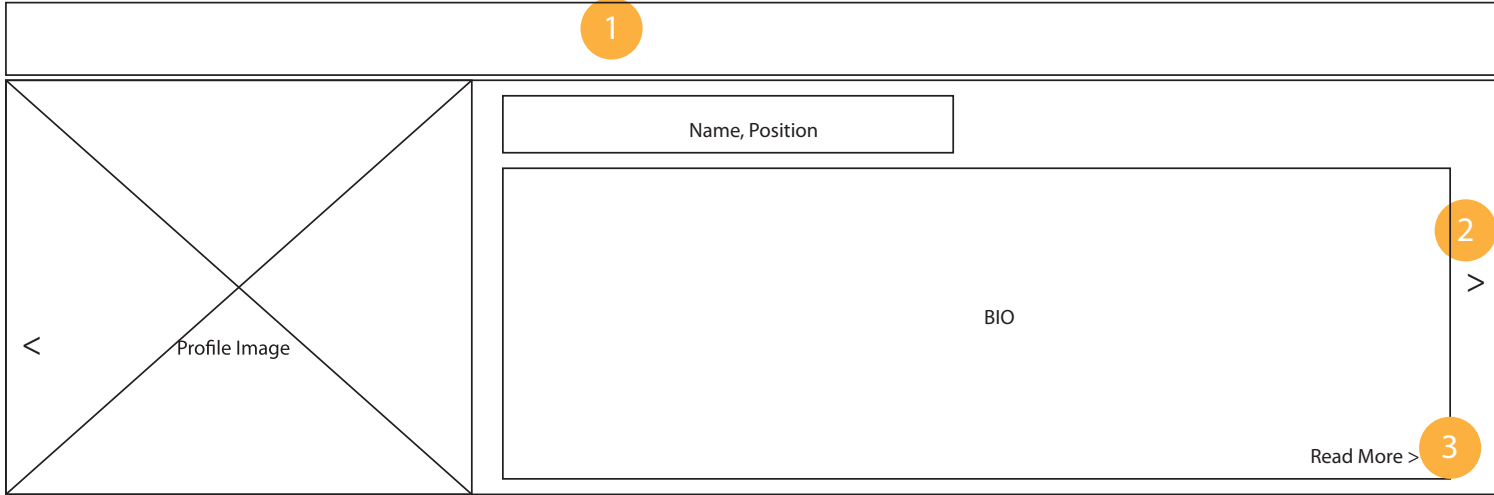

Allow us to provide you great ground transportation options that fit within your budget and match your specific needs whether it is for motor coaches, double-decker buses, executive coaches, limo buses, mini buses, school buses or vans.

Food & Beverage

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner, and AM/PM Breaks — We work with the hotels to get you the right menus and negotiate hard to keep your food costs down. A well-fed guest is a happy one!

E-mail: robert@traveladvocates.com

Robert Miller is both a Certified Meeting Professional and a licensed attorney. His meeting planning experience coupled with his legal expertise makes a powerful combo enabling his customers to have the sharp negotiating skills of an attorney and the street smarts of a group travel planner.

Robert has booked hotel rooms, cruises and events for various groups since 1996. By working in the trenches of the meetings and hotel industry, he has done everything from catering and A/V to conference planning and executing full-scale meetings and events. While in law school, Robert founded TravelAdvocates to better assist his customers in their site-selection process.

The diagram shows a table with three columns. The first column is the narrowest, the second is the widest, and the third is the narrowest. Three orange circles with white numbers are placed on the table: '1' is in the top-left corner of the first column; '2' is in the top-left corner of the second column; '3' is in the middle of the third column. The table is enclosed in a black border.
